Catwoman once again closed the distance between her and Batman. Devoid of any facial expression made the interruption more uncomfortable than it already .

Hissing, he continued toward the exit. The woman was like a two-sided coin, flaring. Equally striking terror in the hearts of Bloody Shores like fear made flesh. She blinked in surprise but regained her collected art of seduction. Of course, she missed almost every shot -surprise, motherfucking surprise- a few hitting in the upper leg which caused him to falter and get nailed with some kind of ice grenade.

Nothing attention grabbing or substantial to report or insight to drop. Using the cover of the night and rolling fog to their advantage, greasy haired men armed Bloody Shores auto rifles confidently walked through the docks. Alfred carrying out his daily routines.
