I think the key to it was Abby Normal, a hysterically funny goth girl. I need my breath to get up the steep trails, and I don't have much when I'm laughing so hard. If you need a book to cheer you up and make you laugh, then this is the book for you. English Choose a language for shopping. I may be a Blue Angel, but she has woken the devil inside. I was also irritated by the frequent typos, and Moore got some details wrong from the first novel, and the anachronisms bothered me. The story is about a girl who is a vampire who turns her friend and she didn't feel invested in what was happening to any of the characters, which made for a pretty boring read.
