I enjoyed this book there was a bit of humour in it along with the tips. And for that alone the book is worth the price of a few raffle tickets.

Knight, a native French speaker, lived in Brussels until about the time she turned nine. Maybe the author could invest in a thesa I ended up skimming a lot of this, as the author's attitude was quite irritating.

It's not a 'bible' of thriftiness. Jan 20, Lynn rated it really liked it. A superb starting place for anyone concerned about the way that they spend money or if you'd just like to make certain that you don't waste more than you have to. I learnt five things Woohoo!
