ZoneModa Journal 03 - English text. Tafuri, Venezia e il Rinascimento, Turin: Their processes are also manifest elsewhere, in diluted or less easily identifiable forms, and they are reproduced today in the re-densification of metropolitan cities for instance, through processes of grid infill and paratactic densification.

What connects the two cities at first sight, beyond their obvious physical layout? Repeating, reproducing, multiplying and shifting its centres, it allows the possibility of multiple and different temporary orders, as well as their infinite intermediate states, potentially generative of variations and different developments. Urban Transformations and the Architecture of Additions.

In this relation though the object is active too, important not for how it looks from closed, defined, and protected, its interiority is always at risk - challenged, reworked, softened, penetrated.
