If Europeans happened to function as translators, this was a source of anxiety: Her exact position on board is unclear – does it include sexual favors?

The idea that the German language is particularly suited to understand and mediate between other languages can also be found in Goethe. The German edition quotes a short section of the original text in old English and then provides a translation of the entire section. While the English edition quotes the entire passage in old English. Interestingly, Forster saved the polemical parts – the botched L'homme pacifique (L'infini) (French Edition) to come to a report assembled collaboratively by Cook and Forster sr.
