And, an awful lot of effort, just a tremendous amount of effort in senior management goes into overcoming that tribalism--making sure that, instead of Financial Research against Multi-Family, it's Financial Research and Multi-Family at Freddie Mac against Fannie Mae. I think it came up in the Pluckrose and Lindsay episode of a few weeks ago. Misesneverdidapodcast. It's not clear that we have anything to contribute other than a few descriptive, stylized images. The growth rate of per capita GDP would return with time to the very low level before the technological revolution. But let's at least try. And so it's not as appealing as it used to be. Now, in, you know, in an agricultural economy, you can sort of see
