This is a book that all facilitators will find useful, regardless their experience, client profile, or approach to their craft. The Consensus Oriented Decision Making Model can be used to generate widespread agreements in the group in both hierarchical and egalitarian organisations. Inordertostimulatetheprocessofcooperationalallideasandpossibleoptio Co-operative decision-making for activists, co-ops and communities. All group members need to be encouraged to discuss with an open mind. I've seen it work well in very large groups--but I've also seen it badly done and become a form of paralysis.
