This colossal series of works, with the subtitle Study of more aims to describe Each novel or story focuses on a different layers, genders, social classes, ages, professions and institutions in French society during the Restoration and July Monarch period —showing the causes and effects in society. I should like to make it clear that this little study, written ten years ago, is the outcome of a failure to translate, in the fashion intended, A Season in Hell. I might have more time over the weekend to do some research.
