From the Back Cover. Think age, gender, location, job title. What's consistent or stands out? Just start writing and you're ready to go. For this, Peters says there are just 4 elements you need to include: What are you and your team really good at? Andrea Goulet, founder of BrandVox, breaks down the process of defining your audience better than anyone I've ever seen--in her Skillshare class Become a Better Blogger. Plus, with how busy your audience is, giving them away to passively listen to your journey even if there's a government shutdown? Effective content is not produced in a vacuum from a list of topics you personally want to write or talk about, it's made out in the open with the involvement, feedback, and direction of your audience.
