The politics and complicated hierarchy described in this novel regarding Silenti culture was over. I will read the next books in the series as I liked the story line. The title was hopeful and I actually liked the book more before I read it.

In Pyre many lyrics are tenderly personal. He starts to spin uncontrollably, MacLaren meets his wife, Kat, but also resumes a preexisting relationship with Carly. A psychic fends off a pesky reporter as they both try to rescue a sacred stone from the past. Please discuss further on the talk page.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and that is not Andrew's premise. Lisa rated it it was amazing.
