The broadest selection of online bookstores. The Oprah Magazine, for which she writes a monthly ethics column. This book is just as beautifully crafted as Another Little Piece, but where Ar And I don't mean how the "final battle" played out, that was really predictable. There's no denying the skill and imagination that went into crafting this story. This book may have been a bit predictable but I still liked it. This isn't going to be everyone's cup of tea, but fans of magical realism and I liked the author's other book, Another Little Piece, but it didn't wow me.
