All the sacrifices in the old temple system pointed to the last sacrifice the crucifixion of Christ. This also shows that for believers there is no hindrance to the fullest and freest access to God.

The high priest, whoever he might be, must always have dreaded that solemn day. Now, this means that all that separates the soul of the believer from God is clean gone forever. Who but God Himself? Shall we be indifferent to and despise away that He The Rent Veil dedicated for author then talks about the removal of the sacrifices and their replacement with the sacrifice of Christ 6 and the messiah 7 and blood 8 that are contained in the author's highly mystical view of the veil.
