My first reaction after reading this book She's foolish and runs towards danger, without thinking of the consequences. There are certain other characters as well but that would be spoiling the story. No really, you will not look at Paris the same ever. Despite her huge dilemma about whether or not she is the alleged "Queen of the Underworld" was true or not, she simply came off as whiny, one-dimensional, and irritating. Been there, done. But Choi Yoori isn't anything like her. I'm just in love and a sucker for Mafia books.
