Though Tozer passed away in his books, messages, and teachings continue to inspire.

The references and annotations provide a great resource for additional study and reading for those who wish to further enrich their study and devotion. As a matter of fact, as Francois Fenelon is quoted in the book, "Without the actual inspiration of the Spirit of grace, we could neither do, nor will, nor believe any good thing.

In fact I requested this book because I thought it was a book of Tozer's writing.

I warned that in reading this book you will not go through it quickly.
