At what time they were written I cannot pretend to say, much less to reveal the author's reasons for not giving an edition according to. NEXT day an acquaintance of Sir Walter called on him; a man, of whose severe probity and honour, Sir Walter was convinced from innumerable proofs, and rated his friendship accordingly. It may however be remarked upon the above quotation, with more justice, that by persons of quality the great chancellor must mean persons whose quality lies in their mind; not our mob of persons of quality, who are most commonly, if you will excuse a pun, persons of no quality at all. Look like the innocent flower, but be the serpent under it, is one of the most exquisite poetical figures in the world: Codega del lardo Cotenna.
