The main character is a contractor in california who is torn between 2 different women, both of whom he is working on houses. Just a moment while we Confessions of a Contractor you in to your Goodreads account. The ending, like most everything I seem to read, fizzled out a little, but it wouldn't stop me from recommending this as a perfect beach read or when you are looking for something light and up beat in between serious reads. Andthetitleisterrible. The Air You Breathe. Since we are considering adding on to our home in the near future, I especially was interested in those tidbits. The author actually seems to know a lot about building houses and such, which makes it feel almost educational.
