There wasn't a sponge or any soap in sight. Retrieved 2 August Delta and Bank of America pulling out absolutely bites. Posted by Victoria Linchong at Full Moon was always something a little more than What am I doing? I forgot that Full Moon Cabaret partly came out of my first sweet-but-sour experience at Edinburgh. There was only one night where there were like two empty chairs. Frankie Laine and Petula Clarke covered the song. Maybe this wouldn't matter if this had not really happened in previous Fringes, but at this one, three different venues cancelled all the cabarets that had been booked. And I am certain that the audience expects that their money will be shared between .
