A simple fictional exercise. Pilgrims and tourists swarm the hamlet in summer, but in the fall, Lily Dale becomes a more intimate setting for spectral communions. A World Coup in Brazil.

The programme is conceived as a journey through time, via the history of the fete. El viaje al que nos invita Mauricio Wiesenthal es fascinante. Behind the two characters there is the difficult reality of immigration. Paranoia and anxiety infuse our media. The waiting time is mixed with the time of our own lives, at a time that we are un- it mirrors the impossibility of imagining the promises of a future in the ruins of the recent past, representing in this way a model of a failed utopia.
