There was a problem filtering reviews right. I recommend this book because, perhaps more than anything I have ever read, it illustrates vividly the power of a story to transform thinking and behavior--immediately.

But question one is, what exactly is the difference between a "trance state" and a "hypnotic state"? He then invited them to change some aspect of their perceptions and behaviors that then led to significant improvements in the problems for which they were seeking help. Too many therapists think that they must direct the change and help the patient to change.
