The Social Expectation Beauty by Lousin Babayan on Prezi

Beauty is molded by society – by the advertising, fashion, and women that looking 20 years younger is an expectation, rather than a choice.

Feminine beauty ideal - Wikipedia

Our expectations of beauty changes like the leaves every season. dijuxucicihe.tk'll be honest and say society's expectations of beauty does. When it comes to beauty expectations vs. reality we say falling in line with what's popular is wack.

The feminine beauty ideal is "the socially constructed notion that physical attractiveness is one. Because the majority of characters are white, "the expectation [is] that all people are or should be like this." Other common traits of female Disney.

With images of ideal beauty bombarding us daily, it is easy to forget that standards of beauty are arbitrary and they vary greatly both from one culture to another.
